

ROSE OF TRALEE BINGO

thejournal.ie
READ. SHARE AND SHAPE THE NEWS

When a Rose says it is her first time in Ireland and she loves it	Whenever somebody cries	"Everyone's been lovely/so lovely!"	"Modern woman"	"Accent"
When a Rose blames her mother for entering the contest	When a Rose says she is still looking for "that someone special"	A mention of the supporters' home-made banners	When reciting a poem is used as a 'talent'	"You're going to sing a song for us?"
Whenever Dáithí 'ooos' because of a Rose's fancy job title	Whenever a Rose describes her relationship with her escort as "just good friends"	"So supportive"	"Lovely girls" 	When a Rose has a GAA-playing boyfriend/husband
When something is said 'as gaeilge'	Dáithí's wedding to a Rose is mentioned 		Whenever Dáithí Ó Sé removes the skirt from a dress so the Rose can dance freely	"An absolute gent"
When a Rose gives a shout out to her class watching at home	When someone recalls how their parents met	"Newbridge Silverware" 	When a Rose talks about the great friends she has made during the process	"It's been a whirlwind"

How to play:

- As the Rose of Tralee gets into full swing, mark off the phrases or events on this card as they occur
- The aim of the game is to have a complete horizontal or diagonal line. The space marked 'free' can be included in any of these lines.
- Shout 'BINGO' as soon you have a completed line.

ROSE OF TRALEE BINGO

thejournal.ie
READ. SHARE AND SHAPE THE NEWS

When a Rose talks about the great friends she has made during the process	 "Newbridge Silverware"	"So supportive"	Whenever Dáithí Ó Sé removes the skirt from a dress so the Rose can dance freely	Whenever somebody cries
"Lovely girls" 	When a Rose gives a shout out to her class watching at home	"It's been a whirlwind"	When a Rose has a GAA-playing boyfriend/husband	When a Rose says she is still looking for "that someone special"
"Everyone's been lovely/so lovely!"	When reciting a poem is used as a 'talent'	Dáithí's wedding to a Rose is mentioned 	Whenever Dáithí 'ooos' because of a Rose's fancy job title	When something is said 'as gaeilge'
	When someone recalls how their parents met	"An absolute gent"	"Modern woman"	When a Rose says it is her first time in Ireland and she loves it
A mention of the supporters' home-made banners	"You're going to sing a song for us?"	Whenever a Rose describes her relationship with her escort as "just good friends"	When a Rose blames her mother for entering the contest	"Accent"

How to play:

- As the Rose of Tralee gets into full swing, mark off the phrases or events on this card as they occur
- The aim of the game is to have a complete horizontal or diagonal line. The space marked 'free' can be included in any of these lines.
- Shout 'BINGO' as soon you have a completed line.

ROSE OF TRALEE BINGO

thejournal.ie
READ · SHARE AND SHAPE THE NEWS

"Everyone's been lovely/so lovely!"	When a Rose says it is her first time in Ireland and she loves it	When a Rose has a GAA-playing boyfriend/husband	When something is said 'as gaeilge'	"Accent"
A mention of the supporters' home-made banners	Whenever a Rose describes her relationship with her escort as "just good friends"	When a Rose blames her mother for entering the contest	"You're going to sing a song for us?"	"Modern woman"
"It's been a whirlwind"	"An absolute gent"	When someone recalls how their parents met	Dáithí's wedding to a Rose is mentioned 	When a Rose says she is still looking for "that someone special"
Whenever Dáithí Ó Sé removes the skirt from a dress so the Rose can dance freely	"Lovely girls" 	When a Rose talks about the great friends she has made during the process	When reciting a poem is used as a 'talent'	Whenever somebody cries
"So supportive"	"Newbridge Silverware" 	Whenever Dáithí 'ooos' because of a Rose's fancy job title	When a Rose gives a shout out to her class watching at home

How to play:

- As the Rose of Tralee gets into full swing, mark off the phrases or events on this card as they occur
- The aim of the game is to have a complete horizontal or diagonal line. The space marked 'free' can be included in any of these lines.
- Shout 'BINGO' as soon you have a completed line.

ROSE OF TRALEE BINGO

thejournal.ie
READ · SHARE AND SHAPE THE NEWS

"Accent"	When a Rose says she is still looking for "that someone special"	When a Rose gives a shout out to her class watching at home	When a Rose blames her mother for entering the contest	"So supportive"
Whenever a Rose describes her relationship with her escort as "just good friends"	A mention of the supporters' home-made banners	"Modern woman"	Dáithí's wedding to a Rose is mentioned 	When reciting a poem is used as a 'talent'
When someone recalls how their parents met	When a Rose has a GAA-playing boyfriend/husband	"Everyone's been lovely/so lovely!"	Whenever somebody cries
When a Rose says it is her first time in Ireland and she loves it	Whenever Dáithí Ó Sé removes the skirt from a dress so the Rose can dance freely	Whenever Dáithí 'ooos' because of a Rose's fancy job title	"It's been a whirlwind"	"Newbridge Silverware"
"Lovely girls" 	"You're going to sing a song for us?"	"An absolute gent"	When a Rose talks about the great friends she has made during the process	When something is said 'as gaeilge'

How to play:

- As the Rose of Tralee gets into full swing, mark off the phrases or events on this card as they occur
- The aim of the game is to have a complete horizontal or diagonal line. The space marked 'free' can be included in any of these lines.
- Shout 'BINGO' as soon you have a completed line.